SENATE PASSES BONUS BILL

S. F. Vessel Stranded Off Coast At Eureka

OKEH MEASURE BY 69-17 VOTE AFTER DEBATE

Ballot Taken After Long Day of Discussion; Legion Officials Pleased

CASH PROPOSAL IS REJECTED

Legislation Provides for Paid up Insurance Policy to Veterans

WASHINGTON, Apr. 23—The Senate today passed the soldier bonus bill providing for a paid up insurance policy for each veteran by the vote of 67 to 17.

The vote was reached at the end of another day of animated debate in which Senator Underwood of Alabama took a most conspicuous part in the opposition to any bonus for ex-service men.

Considerable impatience was manifested by the friends of the measure over the dilatory tactics resorted to by some of the Senators to delay passage. Long before the final roll call there were calls for "Vote! Vote!" from the floor, while the galleries joined in subdued tones.

When the vote was announced, there was a great sigh of relief throughout the chamber, as the fight for adjusted compensation had been a long bitter one in which all sorts of influence were brought to bear.

Officials of the American Legion, who watched the battle from the galleries, were much pleased with the outcome. Senator Cpeland of New York, made a frantic effort to have his cash bonus plan adopted. He made a fervid speech in which he denounced the newspapers for condemning his proposal. After much effort, he succeeded in getting a roll call and his proposal was rejected, 41 to 38.

Two Cited on Speeding Charge

Two Richmond men were cited by local police for speeding here last night, and will appear before Police Judge C. A. Odell to answer the charge. Those cited were E. A. Meindesee, 1827 Roosevelt, alleged to have been driving 45 miles an hour in Pullman avenue, and John Novascone, Vista hotel, for driving 25 miles an hour on Macdonald avenue, between First and Fifteenth streets. Meindesee will appear Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, while Novascone will appear tomorrow morning. Under the schedule of penalties recently adopted by county judges, conviction for driving 45 miles an hour carries with it a fine of $25.

Charges Spouse With Life Threats

Thomas E. Stewart, Richmond truck driver, has been brought to the county jail and is being held on a charge of battery and threats against life preferred by his wife, Elizabeth A. Stewart. Stewart's bail has been fixed at $1,000 by Justice of the Peace John Roth.

Bill to Raise Senators' Pay Is Introduced

WASHINGTON, April 23. — Increase in salaries of Senators and Congressmen from $7,500 to $10,000 a year is proposed in a bill introduced in the House today by Representative Cellar, Democrat of New York.

The increased salaries would be paid to members of the next Congress to be elected in November, and the holdover Senators.

WARNS STATE AGAINST FEAR

The federal government assumed complete control of the hoof and mouth scourge yesterday and coincidently Governor Richardson held a conference in the state building with San Francisco legislative representatives looking toward relieving the hysteria over the disease. The governor said the situation is not serious, but California must now concentrate its fight on quieting the hysteria that has been created. As a result of the false propaganda the governor said:

"The consumption of gasoline has fallen off 50 per cent.

"Hotels and resorts are doing no business. Travel has been stopped.

"If quarantines now imposed by other states continue, our fruit crop will not be able to move.

"The disease is under control and is only serious in two counties of the state."

COMPLETE BAN PLACED ON BRIONES VALLEY

Taking steps to close every avenue by which the hoof and mouth scourge might be communicated from Briones valley, officials combatting the disease placed a ban against residents of the infected area leaving their property and restriction against children from that section attending school in Martinez. The ban against school attendance will be maintained but for two weeks, the usual period of incubation of hoof and mouth disease germs. The order applies to all residents west of the Burnham ranch.

Burglar Suspect's War Record Denied

MARTINEZ, April 23.—Harry Martin, "afternoon burglar" whose stories of World war battles and wounds, won him the sympathy of officers, has not the war record he told officers here and in Alameda county, according to official transcript of his record with the Canadian war department received today by Deputy Sheriff J. W. Smiley.

According to Smiley, the Canadian records show that Martin enlisted in the Canadian forces in September, 1917, and saw service in Canada, France and England. Smiley has also been informed that Martin was in Leavenworth penitentiary in 1917 on a grand larceny charge. According to Martin's story, he was in the first and second battle of Ypres and other early engagements of the war, and in the first gas attack launched by the Germans.

Martin admitted burglarizing a half dozen east bay homes and was sentenced to San Quentin penitentiary by Judge A. B. McKenzie.

GIRL STOWAWAY FOUND ABOARD U. S. S. ARIZONA

Discovered as Pacific Fleet Is Leaving Panama for Los Angeles Harbor

INVESTIGATION IS STARTED

Said to Have Declared Others Are on Ships; Probe Is Begun

LOS ANGELES, April 23.—Sensational disclosures that a girl stowaway was found aboard the U. S. S. Arizona just after the Pacific fleet left aPnama for Los Angeles harbor on April 12, that the girl declared other girl stowaways were on other vessels of the fleet, and that a thorough investigation has been launched, were made today at Los Angeles horbar.

As a result of the startling condition, which has caused a furore in naval circles, it was learned, drastic action, including a detailed search of every ship in division four, has been launched by Admiral W. V. Pratt, in command of the division now at the harbor.

The name of the girl found on the Arizona, the flagship of the battleship division, was not given in the official report of the scandal, nor was the purpose of her presence on board the vessel made known.

Says Wife Hit Him With Flat Iron; Sues for Diorce

When his wife, Gladys Viola Burch, became incensed during an argument on October 27, 1923, she hurled a flatiron at him which fractured three of his ribs, Ellis Godfrey Burch, of this city, charges in suit for divorce he filed at Martinez yesterday. Burch alleges that his wife frequently remained away from home until late hours of the night and charges that on such occasions she was in the company of other men. On August 27, 1923, he claims in his complaint, he found his wife in a compromising ittitude with a man unknown to him. Burch asks the custody of two children. The couple married in 1914 and separaed on the day Burch says his wife hurled the flatiron at him. The suit was filed through Attorneys Will Robenson and H. C. Ellis.

Suit Against Contractor Ends

Suit instituted here three years ago by L. P. Hayward and his wife, Emilie, against R. H. Downer, Richmond contractor, and carried to the state supreme court, was finally terminated yesterday when there was filed with the county clerk a satisfaction of judgment showing payment of $2,746 by Downer to the plaintiffs. In November, 1922, the Haywards obtained a jury verdict here for $2,000 for injuries Mrs. Hayward received when she fell into an open sewer ditch here, which, it was claimed, was unguarded by a light. The payment by Downer represented the verdict and costs of suit.

Convicted Bootlegger Tells of Sending Substitute to Jail

SAN FRANCISCO, Apll 23.—James Greenan, convicted bootlegger, couldn't afford to go to jail and give up a prosperous business, so he hired a substitute and went back to his still at 28 Prescott alley.

He confessed the fact today to Federal Judge Frank H. Kerrigan, who had sentenced him. United States District Attorney John T. Williams got the idea from Greenan that probably some of the other bootleggers now doing time are merely "hired mourners", and ordered a general investigation.

Greenan was sentenced on April 15 to one month in the county jail and to pay a fine of $500. He was given the alternative of serving three months without a fine.

He obtained a stay of execution of five days and in that time was able to find Nick Semey, 2381 Lombard street, who was willing for a consideration to spend three months in jail.

"Five dollars a day, free room and board," tempted him.

FOUR APPLICANTS FOR POLICE JOB

Four applications have already been received for the position of chief of police of Richmond, as a result of the action of the city council in declaring that office vacant. This was announced yesterday by City Manager James A. McVittie.

McVittie refused, however, to give out any information as to who the applicants might be. It is understood that two are local men,and two outside. Members of the council declared that no plans had been made as yet, and it is thought that care will be taken in the choosing of a man to head the police department.

The city manager also reported that four applications had been received for the position of fire chief here, though that office is still filled and nothing definite is known as to the action that will be taken by the council.

City officials yesterday supervised the destroying of the wine referred to in the affidavit filed by G. Cavelletti, 23 Santa Fe avenue, which had been ordered dumped out by Police Judge C. A. Odell.

Committee on Music Week Program Meets

The music week committee met yesterday morning at the Richmond club house and furthered plans for the program is to be offered. A fourth concert has been arranged, to be given Friday, May 9, by the Municipal band. Instrumental numbers and vocal selections have been listed on the program.

The following members of the committee were present:

Mrs. R. H. Clark, chairman; Mrs. J. O. Ford, Mrs. H. A. Stiver, Mrs. F. Blount, and Mrs. F. R. Kruetzen.

Sample Ballots Placed in Mail

County Clerk J. H. Wells yesterday placed in the mails 18,098 sample ballots directed to voters in this county qualified to vote at the presidential primary election on May 6. The number of ballots mailed is short of the total registration because persons registered as affiliated with parties not having a ticket in the field are not entitled to cast a ballot.

FILE TOTAL OF 1241 SIGNATURES

A total of 1241 signatures were filed in the city clerk's office yesterday on the 30 sections of the bathhouse bond election petitions, which the workers for the project have been circulating during the last few days. Of 1241 names, 179 were disqualified by City Clerk A. C. Faris, principally because a number of the housewives of the city signed the lists giving the initials of their husband instead of their own. With 1062 qualified signatures, the election for the bath house bonds the latter part of May is practically assured.

The petitions will be brought up before the city council at its meet- Monday night and at this time the actual date for the balloting will be set.

Mrs. Ripley Talks at Martinez Club

MARTINEZ, April 23.—Conditions attaining in various parts of the United States demand passage of the immigration bill now pending before Congress, Mrs. L. D. Leonard, president of the Broadcasters' club and official of the Alameda Federated clubs, told 40 women who yesterday attended the meeting of the Martinez Woman's club. Mrs. Leonard and Mrs. S. S. Ripley, of Richmond, president of the Contra Costa Federation of Women's clubs, were guests of the local club.

In urging enactment of the immigration bill, Mrs. Leonard declared the exclusion section relating to persons ineligible to American citizenship, is the vital part of the measure. Conditions that have demanded enactment of such legislation were discussed in detail by the speaker.

Mrs. Ripley, in a short address, complimented the Martinez club for the excellent progress it has made in construction of its home.

Mrs. Charles Hertzog contributed a group of spring songs and on request, also sang while tea was served.

SHIP WITH 231 PASSENGERS IS REPORTED ADRIFT

Admiral Line Steamer Ruth Alexander Cut Off From Assistance

WIRELESS IS OUT OF ORDER

No Immediate Danger Unless Heavy Storm Comes Up, Officers Declare

EUREKA, April 23.—With engines disabled and listing heavily to port, the Admiral line steamer Ruth Alexander, a former German vessel before the war, is off Trinidad Head, 30 miles north of here, unable to receive assistance from the shore because of the heavy bar which is breaking at Humboldt Bay.

Vessels here, unable to put to sea because of the rough bar, are waiting until the sea and wind subside before going to the aid of the vessel.

The sea is rough, but the weather is clear. There are 231 passengers on board from points as far south as San Diego, bound for Seattle. The ship has a crew of 143.

There is no immediate danger to the craft, according to officials of the Pacific Steamship company. Unless a wind heavier than that which was blowing at dusk last night should come up, the vessel will be safe. A gale might drive the Ruth Alexander upon the rocky Mendocino coast, it was said.

That the vessel is totally disabled and her wireless not working is gathered from the fact that no wireless messages were received from her today.

On account of the great amount of business to be transacted, all members are urged to be in attendance.

Conservative Attitude Should Be Be Taken on Business Conditions," Building Trade Report Declares

While the nation's building program is now progressing at a rate that, if steadily maintained, will approximate $6,000,000,000 for the year, a conservative attitude should be taken with regard to the immediate future, both in the building industry and in all other lines of business, according to a statement made yesterday.

"While general conditions in the building industry are well stabilized and the prospects are favorable for an active summer, I believe now is the time when all prospective building projects should be most carefully scrutinized," said Mr. Straus recently. "While the amound of pending construction in this country is very large, judging from the volume of building plans that have been filed since the first of the year, and indicate that current activities are at the rate of $6,000,000,000 for the year, it should be borne in mind that we have had an uninterrupted period of unusual activity in the industry for more than two years, and therefore a cautious and conservative attitude at this time is within the bounds of good business judgment.

"The helpful effect of present building activities on general business at this time cannot be over-estimated. It means not only employment for millions of men and profitable activities in scores of trades and industries, but it means also the creation of new wealth for the country and the widespread enhancement of property values through improvement. In brief, it means real American progress.

"In view of these beneficial effects on the national business machine, it would indeed be unfortunate if a radical slowing up in construction activities were to ensue this summer.

"It is significant that the activities now going on so extensively are thoroughly national in scope. During a recent western trip in which I spent some time on the Pacific coast, I noticed everywhere the same evidences of progress.

"There is still some talk that building costs are too high and that these costs must soon come down. While there will always be fluctuations or times when, due to temporary or local conditions, building costs ease up somewhat, it is to be borne in mind that present price levels are directly affected by such economic factors as labor, taxation, transportation and other important items on which any immediate marked reductions are improbable.

"Also our constantly advancing standards of living constitute an influence equally as powerful as any purely economic factor. It is a fact, as we all know, that the average prosperous family would not be willing to live today as they lived a few years ago, although at that time they may have felt well satisfied with their surroundings.

"We cannot judge probable conditions of tomorrow merely from the standpoint of the past, because building is always done for the future, never for the past. The buildings now being erected must be made to suit the advancing tendencies of the times. If not, they soon become obsolete and of a correspondingly depreciated value.

"The building industry is perhaps the nation's most accurate index of improved standards of living by the people. It is in the home that one finds expression given to the universal desire of all persons to live more conveniently, comfortable and efficiently.

"One of the outstanding characteristics of Americans is our spirit of progress. As succeeding generations become better educated and more prosperous there is fostered a corresponding desire to live in more agreeable and comfortabel surroundings. Inventions and innovations are constatly being introduced which raise the standards of convenience and efficiency in the average American home.

"These conditions, which have a most pronounced effect both on building costs and activities, were never more apparent than today. To my mind this is a factor that will continue to influence building tendencies, because it is a fundamental of human nature."

Stories of Heroism and Horror In Japanese Earthquake Are Told

As normal conditions are slowly restored in Tokyo dramatic stories are being told of incidents during the fire which destroyed the city immediately following the earthquake of September 1 last. Among these are many stories of the actions of Japanese Christians, which are received by the Episcopal church in connection with the fund which is being raised to rebuild the Christian churches which were destroyed in the disaster. One tells of a Christian convert, G. Higuchi, by name. Higuchi, incidentally means literally, "mouth of fire." He was a member of the Church of the True Light, in the slum section of Tokyo, and among the 35,000 who took refuge in the military stores enclosure 32,000 who took refuge in the Militarq Stores enclosure, 32,000 of whom were burned to death.

These refuges sought safety in the Military Stores on the advice of a Japanese police official, who, after viewing the scene of horror there on the following day, killed himself through remorse over having recommended the place as a refuge from the flames. At the time there was no thought that the fire would spread to this great open space of 25 acres, so the people, carrying with them their household goods and fleeing from the destroyed section took possession of the enclosure, which an hour later was jammed with a solid mass of people. Rev. Y. Sugiura, a Christian minister living in the neighborhood, tells the story. He says:

"For a long time it was very calm and comfortable and there was no sign of any such calamity as was pending. All the people there had the idea that the danger would pass away when the houses in the immediate neighborhood were burned down. Then suddenly, without warning, there was a terrific noise and the air was filled with objects whirled up by the fearful force of a blast of wind. Instantly everything combustible in the whole place was in a blaze and the whole mass seemed to be swept into the air in a huge spiral column and then hurled to the ground upon the poor victims below. One boy, luckier than the rest, was carried two miles and dropped unharmed into the water of the canal. The place was now a veritable hell where the people were being burned alive in the place towhich they had fled for refuge, and the goods they had carried, there for safety were converted into fuel to make their death more terrible. Cries for mothers, cries for husbands—a universal shriek arose from the mass and continued for about ten minutes, and then silence fell and there was no sound but the cracking of the flames.

"Then occurred a wonderful thing. A native Christian stood up and preached a sermon to those who were facing death. Those who heard the sermon say it was short, but above the roaring of the flames they heard distinctly the closing words:

"'Lord Jesus, I [illegible]' he cried and fell into the flames.

Mr. Higuchi's mother, who was lying at his feet, was rescued, though pitifully burned, and told the story to Mr. Sugiura.

FAMILY NIGHT PROGRAM WITH GRANDMA'S BOY

This Friday night at the family night program, the Wesley Methodist Episcopal church will feature the things especially interesting to boys, whether small or of a larger growth. There will be community singing, special instrumental music, several of Edward Guest's spicey poems on boys and their dads. It will be a strange boy or dad who will not enjoy the motion picture, "Wizardry of Wireless," and he is an abnormal lad or dad who will not revel in Harold Lloyd's big comedy, "Grandma's Boy." This is the drama of a bashful boy. He is such a coward that the boldest thing he ever did was to sing out loud in church. He is beaten in every struggle of life. His old grandmother gives him a charm with which she says his grandfather overcame cowardice and covered himself with glory in the Civil war. With the charm, he goes out and wins many wonderful feats. Then grandma tells him the charm was only her umbrella handle—all he needed was self-confidence. It is exceedingly thrilling and funny. Offering at the door to cover expenses. Every welcome. Special invitation to fathers and son—and grandmas.

Rev. Woten is Speaker Before Gidon Club

Rev. F. A. Woten, of the First Christian church, was the principal speaker of the evening at the meeting of the Gideon club last night. The session was opened with community singing led by W. H. Cook. E. Perry Lasater acted as chairman for the evening, and presented the following program.

Piano solos were given by Miss Geraldine Quinley, and Justin Price entertained with several vocal solos, accompanied by Miss Quinley at the piano. Miss Lois Woods also entertained with several lovely vocal solos, furnishing her own accompanment.

Rev. Woten chose as the topic of his subject, "Some of the Things We Need." Among these things he listed better men, better homes, better communities, better churches and a better nation. He also told of the lack of the gift of appreciation, and how much many would appreciate things if they had them of a better standard.

He also elaborated on the sin of ingratitude and told of the great need of neighborliness. He told of one preacher who summed up the entire Bible with two words, worshipping and neighboring. Rev. Woten concluded his talk by saying that a preacher should preach the Bible and preach Jesus, instead of preaching about the Bible and about Christ.

SACRAMENTO, April 23.—The division of motor vehicles today issued a report showing registrations of all types of motor vehicles and trailers for the first three months of 1924 totaled 1,101,417. During the same period a total of $5,089,899.60 was collected in motor vehicle fees which will be apportioned to the counties and state highway commission for road purposes after deducting administrative expenses.

The registration figures given by the division for the three months period are only a few thousand less than the total of 1923, according to Will H. Marsh, chief of the division.

In spite of the fact that the local office handles all mail applications, registrations of the Los Angeles office were greatly in excess of any other branch of the division. The reports give a total of 451,274 for the southern city, 396,387 of which were private passengers cars. Are You Run Down?

Awaken to the Danger and Aid The Weakened Kidneys

Kidney sickness often runs you down to the verge of collapse before you know the cause. When you seem unable to pin your mind to any task, your back aches, and you cannot do on ordinary day's work, it is time to ask yourself this question: "Are my kidneys working all right?" The answer may be easily found.

Weak kidneys slacken their filtering work and the uric acid circulates with the blood, in many cases attacking the brain, nerves, muscles, and vital organs. Don't wait for the serious trouble, begin using Doan's Kidney Pills when you first feel the backache or notice the first urinary disorders. This remedy has given new life and strength to thousands.

Proof of merit in a Richmond citizen's statement.

Mrs. I. Davidson, 734 Ninth street Richmond says: Sometimes my kidneys were weak and out of order. I often had backaches and felt dull and languid. My kidneys didn't act right either. I read of Doan's Kidney Pills and procured some at the LaMoine Drug Co. Doan's strengthened my back and kidneys and benefitted me in every way.

Million in Jewels Feature Showing Macdonald Today

"One Million In Jewels," the new picture which is at the Macdonald theatre tonight only, is an exciting melodrama played by a cast selected because of its skill in telling a story of this kind. It is headed by J. P. McGowan, who wrote and directed the picture, an dthat favorite of many a thriller, Helen Holmes, is prominent in the cast.

Everyone whose interest in motion pictures goes back of current releases will welcome the opportunity to see these two players, for they have long occupied a place on the screen shared by no others. For years Helen Holmes played in a series of railroad dramas abounding in stunts which have never been equalled for daring and originality, and J. P. McGowan as director of these pictures and a hundred others achieved recognition equalling his own work as star in many others. But not often, if ever, have the two players appeared in the same picture, and for that reason "One Million In Jewels" is doubly important.

The cast is further enhanced by Elinor Fair, among the screen's most engaging ingenues, who sounds a dramatic note in the new picture. She was co-starred with Albert Ray in a score of Fox pictures and played the leading feminine role in "Kismet" with Otis Skinner, besides being selected by Mary Pickford for an important part in "Through the Back Door."

Charles Craig plays an amusing role opposite Nellie Parker Spaulding. Both are favorites with screen enthusiasts for they can always be depended upon to contribute something definite to every production in which they play. Mr. Craig has played in too many pictures to mention and has been connected with the leading stage producers for a number of years, while Nellie Parker-Spaulding's career ahs been likewise distinguished.

Fred Kalgrer, Leslie J. Casey and Gordon Standing, the latter having just completed his excellent work in "Outlaws of the Sea," complete a cast in every respect admirable.

Veterans' Bureau Plans New Policy

Where a disability has once been connected with the service and payment of compensation made under an award, such disability shall not be rated as not of service origin subsequent to the expiration of the time allowed for appeal (four months) except on approval of the director.

This new policy was announced by General Frank T. Hines, director of the U. S. Veterans' bureau and went into effect on April 11, 1924.

In cases where from a subsequent review of the file, either on the same or additional evidence, it appears that the finding as to the service connection was erroneous, the district board of appeals or medical rating section in central office, shall forward the case for the attention of the director with a complete resume, stating the reasons why it is believed the former decision was erroneous and the disability should be held not incurred or aggravated by service. The director personally will pass the merits of these cases.

The policy further carries with it a provision whereby the payment of compensation shall not be discontinued or suspended or the benefits of hospitalization or treatment for the disability in question be denied until the directon has approved the rating.

Director Hines today states that he believed the above policy would provide additional security and protection to the beneficiaries of the bureau and would meet the approval of the public.

The order also makes it impossible for a district board of appeals to reverse or amend a decision of the central board of appeals on the same evidence or for the district board of appeals to amend a decision on the board of appeals of another district on the same evidence. If in the opinion of the district board of appeals additional evidence warrants a reversal of or an amendment to the decision rendered by the central board of appeals, the complete records will be forwarded to the central board of appeals for decision with a certificate of difference of opinion showing the facts upon which such difference of opinion is predicated. A similar action will be taken where a district board of appeals believes a decision rendered by a district board of appeals of another district should be reversed or amended.

If in the opinion of the district board of appeals the additional evidence warrants a reversal of or amendment to the decision rendered by the board of appeals of any district, or the central board of appeals, for a period subsequent to the last decision, a rating shall be made by the district board of appeals, and this rating shall be final unless the case is appealed to the central board of appeals by the claimant, his legal representative, his agent duly authorized, or by the bureau on its own motion, within four months from the decision and notice there of to the claimant or his legal representative. The claimant shall be notified of his right to appeal to the central board of appeals.

Arrangements Made For Shrine Dance

Arrangements are nearing completion for the big Shrine dance that is to be given in Winters hall next Friday evening, April 25, by the Richmond Shriners who are to have as their guests the Nobles of Aahmes temple and their ladies. This is the first dance that has been planned by the local Shriners for some time and from the reports received, it promises to be the event of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Hammond head the host and hostess committee for the evening. They will be assisted by Messr. and Mesdames Joseph F. Brooks, Howard M. Flint, Clare D. Horner, J. O. Ford, James T. Narbett, Earl L. Scofield, Orzen Zuver, Leslie A. Black, Otto Paulsen, Dr. and Mrs. C. L. Abbott, Dr. and Mrs. W. S. Lucas, Miss Ivy Lee.

All Knight Templars and thirty-second degree Masons, who are not members of the Shrine, are cordially invited to attend as well as Shriners who are members of other temples. Admission will be by due card only.

The best of music has been secured and several features will be put on during the evening.

Chas. A. Green, general chairman of the Richmond Shrine committees and members of the official Divian, advises that this is only the beginning of social festivities in Contra Costa county of Aahmes Shrine members. An appeal to the members of Richmond in support of these occasions has been so enthusiastic and responsive that their success is assured. In the near future a dance will be given at Crockett under the general direction of Jack Patterson, cashier of the Hawaiian Sugar company, in which the local membership of Richmond will take part. Plans are also being made for a dinner dance in the early fall, this feature being quite new to Richmond.

Crows Are Not As Bad As They Are Painted, U.S. Bureau States

(Humane News)

We have always contended that crows were black in color and black in character. Volumes have been written about the depredations of this bird. Every farmer hates him. Every sportsman should, and we believe that most of them do.

Now comes the United States Department of Agriculture with a news release headed "Crows Not So Black As They Are Painted." This article defends the crow and makes the claim that a careful study of the economic status of this bird demonstrates that over much of his range he does as much good as harm.

We do not know a single argument in favor of the crow; therefore we must plead ignorance. For all we know, the crow may eat such quantities of noxious insects that he is easily worth more to the farmer than the many smaller insect-eating birds which he destroys. We would hate, however, to argue in his favor with some farmer who had just finished replanting a field of corn which had been pulled by crows.'

Among sportsmen the crow is classed as vermin. We do know a great deal about his activities as such and pronounce him the worst egg thief and murderer of fledglings with which our wild bird life has to contend. We have watched crows beating back and forth across prairies systematically hunting out the nests of every prairie chicken and wild duck and gorging themselves on the eggs until their bills and heads were yellow from the yolks.

In the spring of the year, when song and insectivorous birds are nesting, you don't hear the cawing of crows so common as at other seasons. If you look carefully you will see, instead, this black thief slipping from orchard tree to orchard tree, quietly, without a sound, he searches each and robs every nest of its contents. In defense of his egg-eating propensities the following paragraph is quoted from the release mentioned above.

"The number of eggs of other birds reported to have been found under crow nests also has been emphasized. Under a right interpretation, this evidence will have a less serious meaning, so far as other bird life is concerned. Scientists state that breeding birds readily replenish losses due to egg destruction and under the conditions described the production of two or more sets of eggs before a brood is brought forth is doubtless the regular occurance."

We leave the evidence with a jury of our peers. Should splendid birds, like our pinnated and sharp-tailed grouse and our wild waterfowl, be compelled to lay a second clutch of eggs in order that the crow may be well fed? Is there any guarantee the crows will stop with the first clutch?

Why Suffer So?

Get Back Your Health as Other Richmond Folks Have Done

Too many people suffer lame, aching backs, distressing kidney disorders and rheumatic aches and pains. Often this is due to faulty kidney action and there's danger of hardened arteries, dropsy, gravel or Bright's disease. Don't let weak kidneys wear you out. Use Doan's Pills before it is too late! Doan's are a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys. Doan's have helped thousands. They should help you. Here is one of many Richmond cases:

Mrs. E. Klein, 1812 Nevin Ave., says: "I felt weak and the least work wore me out completely. My kidneys didn't act normally and I had frequent attacks of backache. I used Doan's Pills and they cured me completely."

OVER SIX YEARS LATER, Mrs. Klein said: "Doan's Pills have always helped me when my kidneys have troubled me."

Mrs. Klein is only one of the many Richmond people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Pills. If your back aches, if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy, ask distinctly for Doan's Pills, the same that Mrs. Klein had, the remedy backed by home testimony. 60 cents at all dealers. Kidney Trouble—Rheumatism

Alameda, Calif., June 23, 1923.

Last winter I suffered with terrible rheumatic pains in my back and legs. At night the agony prevented me from sleeping. My bladder and kidneys also bothered me, and I was miserable in the extreme. No treatment afforded me any relief until I began to take the FONG WAN HERBS. After having taken them for about eight weeks I was completely cured and have had no pain since. I am now free from all my former complaints.

A few months ago my husband was troubled with indigestion and a sore stomach. He was unable for some months to retain his food. He took the FONG WAN HERBS for only one week and he has felt well ever since.

About the middle of April, 1923, my daughter's foot became swollen and painful. A big cancer began to form in it and the pain became so severe that she could not sleep for weeks. We had a physician attending her, but the pain, instead of subsiding, extended to her knee. There was evidence that her kidneys and bladder were also in bad condition.

Finally, we consulted our former herbalist, Fong Wan. After having taken the first package of herbs, which I cooked for her to drink, my daughter slept all night. After three weeks of the herbs she was able to go back to school with her slipper on. Now the swelling has entirely gone. Had it not been for Fong Wan's skill her foot might have been cut off. Because of gratitude for health regained, my husband joins me in signing this testimonial.

MR. and MRS. C. O. JENSEN,
1847 Elm Street, Alameda.

FONG WAN does not depend upon methods that have been employed by and handed down by other herbalists. He does not take it for granted that that what has been good for one will prove beneficial in all similar cases, but he studies each case separately and compounds herbs to suit the individual need. This is the reason why the Fong Wan Herbs are the most effective and that Fong Wan is a real capable herbalist of greatest experience.

TRACK MEET AND FIELD DAY FETE PLANNED BY H. S.

Sophomores to Meet Junior High School Squad in Near Future

Major I. W. Hill, physical education director of the high school, is planning a track meet and field day between the sophomores of the Richmond high and the students of the junior high school, within the next few weeks. The junior high school students, under the direction of Doc. Seawright, have all been given a chance to perform on both the track and field, and by this system he has developed some track stars that will give the older boys a run for their money.

A practice meet with McClymonds high of Oakland has been set a week from today for the regular track squad of the high school. This meet will be held to give the local tracksters a chance at some real competition before the bump up with the Mission high of San Francisco in a relay meet on May 10 in the Golden Gate Park stadium.

50 MERIT BADGES GIVEN AT SCOUT COURT OF HONOR

Nine Youths Are Given Awards; Plan Work on Building Saturday Afternoon

Richmond Boy Scouts held the court of honor last night at the Point Firemen's hall. Fifty merit badges were awarded to the following boys: Robert Caldwell, Donald and David Shoemaker, August Berness, Fred Heeger, Fred Childs, Robert Johnson, Hubert Miller and Eston Davis.

The following men put the tests to the boys. E. H. Usher, E. J. Dingle, G. B. Glineburg, J. E. George and W. H. Garrard. A definite date has been set for the court of honor, and hereafter this will be held the fourth Wednesday of every month at the Point Firemen's hall.

A great deal of work is expected to be accomplished at the building Saturday, as a large number of men and boys have promised to be out on this day.

"The Eternal City" at California

We have often heard the phrase "all-star cast" used in connection with motion pictures, but never has the term been so applicable as in the cast of "The Eternal City," a First National picture produced by George Fitzmaurice, which opened a two-day engagement at the California theatre yesterday.

The many players appearing in this production are headed by an exceptionally brilliant quintette, consisting of Barbara La Marr, Lionel Barrymore, Bert Lytell, Richard Bennett and Montague Love, all of whom have attained stellar rank in previous pictures. Were we assigned to assemble a cast of equal talent, we would have to confess defeat.

Hall Caine's story was perfect motion picture material to start with, but Director Fitzmaurice has transformed it into a photoplay of unparalleled power and beauty. Favored with roles befitting their individual talents, the cast gives a performance that will live long in our memory.

And the settings! They are nothing less than poetical rhapsodies. Sir Hall Caine laid the story in Rome—and there is where the picture was filmed. You will be regaled with pictorial backgrounds such as you have never seen before on the screen. The massive Coliseum, where the pomp and glory of ancient Rome was displayed; the Roman Baths and many other historical vistas of beauty are to be seen.

Amid such picturesque settings moves this gripping story of a love that survived the crucible of bitterness and suspicion. Rich in contrast, the plot becomes highly spectacular at times, when mobs, numbering thousands, sweep down the streets of the city bent on destruction and vengeance.

"The Eternal City" merits a position of honor on the scroll of unforgetable pictures.

Other features on the same program are Lige Conley in his latest comedy scream, "There He Goes"; Kinograms; and Larry F. Canelo at the organ.

"Beer" Explodes When Placed on Stand in Trial

MARTINEZ.. April 23.—The pent up potency and power of some of the liquor that is evidence in the trial of Sam Butulia, and which county officers claim was found buried beside Butulia's home near San Pablo, was demonstrated yesterday afternoon when one of three bottles of beer exploded and gave Assistant District Attorney James F. Hoey a drenching,

More than 75 bottles of assorted liquors was stacked near the prosecutor's table in Judge A. B. McKenzie's court. With a resounding crash the cork of one of the beer bottles blew out and ascended toward the ceiling. A stream of snowy white liquid followed, its trapectory being toward Hoey. The unexpected demonstration caused a short delay in the trial. ....

Install Radio Set at Winters

Adolph Winters, proprietor of the Winters Music store, has installed a radio set in his store, and will use it in the near future for special displays, including an evening of dancing to radio music.

The set is one of the latest types, concealed in a phonograph cabinet, and is of sufficient capacity to get any California stations. Winters also intends to show a variety of radio materials in his store, including a number of receiving sets of different kinds.

Postpone State Legion Meetings

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23.—State Commander James F. Collins, of the American Legion, has notified all officers in his organization that the contemplated state-wide conferences scheduled for the next two weeks in various California cities have been postponed because of the foot and mouth quarantine in some of the counties. The first of the meetings was to have been held in Fresno, April 27.

The American Legion, through Commander Collins, is cooperating with Governor Richardson and federal officials in enforcing quarantine regulations and the services of all legion posts in areas affected by the foot and muth epidemic have been offered to the governor in the present crisis.

Many Autos Stolen In Year

Would Form Line, Washington to N. Y.

Drastic Measures Are Urged

WASHINGTON, April 23.—If placed in a single line, the automobiles stolen in the United States during 1923 would have extended from New York to Washington. Automobile thefts in the United States have assumed alarming proportions coincident with the rapid increase in motor vehicle registration during the past few years. Today there is one automobile in this country for every eight persons. The Insurance Advisory committee of the chamber of commerce of the United States, recently completed a detailed investigation of the automobile theft situation. Its findings and recommendations are incorporated in a report which will be considered by the membership of the national chamber at its annual meeting in Cleveland next month.

The enactment of certification of automobile title laws by the various states is recommended by the committee as an important means of decreasing auto thefts. Fifteen states have adopted this type of legislation since 1919 when the first title law passed in Virginia. Other states which have adopted similar laws since that time are Colorado, Maryland, Indiana, Michigan, Missouri, Ohio, Utah, Alabama, California, Delaware, Florida, North Carolina, Pennsylvania and Wyoming. The legislatures of several other states are considering the matter this year.

The chief feature of automobile laws according to the committee's report, is that the burden of proof regarding ownership is placed upon the possessor of an automobile. In order to register his car for license, the owner must first obtain a title certificate which will show his right to possess the automobile. In the event he sells the machine, the title is assigned and the new certificate recorded by the state. In this respect there is a decided similarity between such certificates and deeds in real estate. Both the deed and the automobile certificate are evidences of ownership and no legal transfer of property can be made without them. The report stresses the fact that a person would not consider purchasing a house or lot to which he could not secure title. Likewise in states which have automobile title laws, a man would not ordinarily buy an automobile without an accompanying certificate of title.

Incorporated in most of the laws now in force are provisions which tend to prevent the theft of cars, make more difficult the transfer of stolen machines and assist in their recovery. Penalties for violations of these provisions are included in all of the present laws. Some of these deal with attempts to own, operate, sell or purchase cars without certificates of title. Others pertain to actual thefts and alteration of identification marks. Authority for enforcement is usually vested with the secretary of state, motor vehicle commissioner or other state authority.

The value of uniform legislation of this nature in all states is readily apparent. The committee, therefore, urges that these laws be placed upon the statute books of all states. This legislation should be uniform in principle, contain adequate provisions for enforcement and penalties for violations.

State Convention of Legion Will Be Held at Monterey

SAN FRANCISCO, April 23.—Extensive plans are being made for the annual state convention of the American Legion to be held in Monterey, August 11 to 14, according to Morgan Keaton, state adjutant of the organization. An executive order has gone out to all of the California posts notifying them that delegates from each post must be sent to the Monterey conclave as no post can be represented by proxy.

The people of the Monterey peninsula have joined in financing the annual legion convention and in providing the necessary entertainment for the affair of the former soldiers.
